

AppraisalPort

More Business. Less Work.

AppraisalPort® provides a direct, secure connection to a network of the nation's largest, most successful mortgage lenders, banks, and management companies.

The number of companies joining this network increases often, bringing more potential business your way.

Managed Business

AppraisalPort helps thousands of appraisers manage their business by making the busywork—phone tag, faxes, and e-mails—virtually disappear with a secure, organized online messaging system. New orders, new messages, and your completed reports all reside in one simple location. Easy.

Convenient Work

We know appraisers don't sit in an office all day, so we make it easy for you to receive orders from lenders and accept or reject assignments 24/7, depending on your work schedule and preferences.

More Benefits

- Gives lenders a way to send you new business
- Organizes your work flow, improving productivity—get more done in less time
- Simplifies tracking and archiving—no more digging through your e-mail queue
- Integrates with Data Express, the most accurate and user-friendly comparable data in the nation
- Improves accuracy by auto-populating your forms, which also helps to speed up your turn-times
- Reduces chances of identity theft and other security risks with password-protected account
- Introduces you to more potential business

Extra Features

AppraisalPort began linking appraisers to mortgage lenders in 1999. Since then, the number of lenders using the system has grown, bringing you more potential business opportunities.

Appraisers: take advantage of extra features designed to improve the way you do business:

- Set the Out-of-Office feature to keep your clients informed when you can't respond personally.
- Market your business using the expanded Profile to share more about your coverage, insurance, license status, and fee schedules.
- Join conversations about the state of the industry in a new Forums section.
- Refer to our Recommended Readings list, vetted by appraisal experts.
- Post jobs available at your growing firm, look for work in another area, or shop for services in our new Classifieds.
- Read testimonials from appraisers who've grown their business using AppraisalPort.
